Dear Captain Reynolds:

We are making a special effort to get the statistics of the Alaska fisheries for 1916 compiled at as early a date as possible. Much of the material has already been assembled and tabulated but there are a few of the canning companies that are dilatory in sending in their reports although we have written formal letters to them reminding them of that fact. It will be appreciated if you can hurry up these reports for us. The companies in question are as follows:

✓ Alaska Salmon Co.,
112 Market St.,
San Francisco, Cal.

✓ Cance Pass Packing Co.,
800 Oregonian Bldg.,
Portland, Ore.

✓ Alaska Sanitary Packing Co.,
300 Eiler Bldg.,
Seattle, Wash.

✓ Carlisle Packing Co.,
1410 L. C. Smith Bldg.,
Seattle, Wash.

Beagle Packing Co.,
Ketchikan, Alaska.

✓ Lindenberg Packing Co.,
1421 L. C. Smith Bldg.,
Seattle, Wash.

✓ Columbia Salmon Co.,
1421 L. C. Smith Bldg.,
Seattle, Wash.

✓ Swift-Arthur-Crosby Co.,
21 Colman Dock,
Seattle, Wash.

The records also show the name of the Union Bay Fisheries Co., ✓ Inc., 1905 L. C. Smith Building. No report has been received from that company.

In the foregoing list you will note the name of the Beagle Packing Co., of Ketchikan. My understanding is that John Beagle operated a small cannery in conjunction with Jack Davis and one or two others, entirely independent of the Pure Food Fish Co., of which cannery Mr. Beagle is manager.

Your cooperation in this will be very much appreciated.

Yours very truly,

N. B.
